

DELEGATES TO STATE CONFERENCE

ULSTER COUNTY W. C. T. U. JUBILEE

Preparations Being Made For Ten Weeks Drive, Beginning March 20 to Raise Quota Towards World Prohibition Work—Miss Winslow of Saugerties, "White Ribbon Mother."

(Contributed.)
The Ulster County Woman's Christian Temperance Union is rapidly being organized for the ten weeks drive beginning March 20 until May 31, to raise their quota of the $1,000,000 budget asked by the National W. C. T. U. to carry on its work of education and program for world prohibition.

Some subscriptions have already been received and at the head of the list of individual subscribers stands the name of Miss Margaret E. Winslow of Saugerties, N. Y., who holds an honor position in the ranks of the white ribbons.

An 85-Year-Old Leader.
Although at the advanced age of eighty-five years, Miss Winslow is eager to see the W. C. T. U. take up its big program for the working out of the Golden Rule of Christ, in the customs of society and the laws of the land. Miss Winslow in 1876, at the National Convention held in Newark, became editor of the official paper of the organization, "Our Union," which later became "The Union Signal."

In 1877, at Chicago convention, in discussing an emblem for the W. C. T. U. Miss Winslow moved as a badge "a bow of white ribbon with W. C. T. U. in light letters." This, after much discussion, was finally adopted by the convention, and in after years, Miss Frances E. Willard referred to Miss Winslow as the "White Ribbon Mother." Ulster county W. C. T. U. is proud to have the name of this veteran of the white ribbon hosts to head the list of contributions.

have forwarded $50 as the first installment of their quota. They are ahead of the drive and no doubt will be an incentive to the other unions to speed the work.
The money raised will be used in an educational way along various lines of reformed work, and to help along world prohibition. Some have said that the next work of the W. C. T. U. will be a tobacco crusade, but there is no immediate campaign planned, although the W. C. T. U. have always had an anti-narcotic department, which has been mainly directed to protecting minors from the evils of the cigarette habit and unalterably opposing women smoking for the protection of posterity. Their work along this line has been purely educational, and will remain so according to the present plans of the leaders, as voiced by Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the National W. C. T. U. and vice-president of the National W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Livingston To Speak.
Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingston will address a meeting in this city on March 31, time and place to be announced later. At this meeting Mrs. Livingston will outline the plans of the Jubilee committee of the W. C. T. U. and those wishing to have first hand knowledge of the future aims of the W. C. T. U. would do well to be present, as Mrs. Livingston is a speaker of international range, and is always forcible and interesting. The Hon. Joseph M. Fowler will also make a short address.
Any one wishing to contribute to the Jubilee Campaign Fund may send their contributions to Mrs. D. B. Hendricks, 149 Elmendorf street, Kingston N. Y.

Alsen Chrissy of Rochester Center has employment at assistant cabinet maker with Moses Green at Kerhonkson.

Miss Annie Hornbeck, of the Ellenville High School, was called to her home to Mettakahonts last week for a few days owing to the severe illness of her mother, Mrs. Oscar Markle. We hear Mrs. Markle is better at this writing.

The vogue of Kipling today is not what it once was. Fewer and fewer fellowships with those descendants of Bar-dolph, Nym and Pistol, the Soldiers Three. ## What Thrift Means.

Thrift is getting the most for one's money. This means speed, the wisely to satisfy important needs of the present and saving the rest of one's income to meet important needs of the future. Thrift is spending for trifles today to get one's resources so that he cannot meet important needs and opportunities tomorrow. Thrift, like success, requires care, planning and will power. To carry out the plan, in short, thrift means success. Thrift stamps will help you to plan and will back up your will power.

ROSES TO ORNAMENT FROCKS

Posies Being Used to Decorate Many Kinds of Gowns—Revival of Old Elizabethan Fashion.

There is much about the latter end of the eighteenth century that is coming back into fashion. The deeply square décolletage with the high line at the back, the tight elbow sleeves with their deep ruffles of precious lace, the ornamental bow of satin blue ribbon in front, and the garlands of little roses appear daily among smart society and in the salons of those exclusive dressmakers who claim that they never become slaves to any one mode of dressing.

There are two designers in New York who use pink roses to ornament various kinds of frocks and coats. They both draw inspiration from the eighteenth century, but they are not in accord with the house of Callot, which chooses roses that are full-blown, soft and becoming.

The roses which we see on these new frocks that come from certain exclusive houses have the appearance of being covered with shells. Some are tawdry and smack of the Christmas tree; others appear to be cut from porcelain. They represent a certain era in dressing, and they are faithful to type.

There are evening gowns which have rows of these glittering, stiff little roses to outline the décolletage and the armholes as well. There are other gowns that have a garland of these roses arranged like a looped chain of pearls across the front of the corsage, and another row at the top of each deep ruffle of lace that hangs pendant from the elbow sleeves.

Strange to say, in connection with this rococo style of ornament, there has arisen a revival of the old Elizabethan fashion of ornamenting velvet gowns. This shows itself in the use of pearls to catch up the hem of skirts and sleeves, and these pearls are often a part of a fine lacework done in gold thread.

LATEST IN VICTORY DESIGN

Combines Fleur-de-Lis of France, the English Rose and the American Golden Rod.

There has come out a fabric, and also a new embroidery, which combines the fleur-de-lis of France, the English rose, and the American golden rod. It is called the victory design, and those who employ it are trying to make it among the accepted ornamentations for the season.

It may be that women will not care for the grouping of these three national flowers, but there seems to be every reason to believe that the French fleur-de-lis, which has gone through the history of that country and has been the symbol of so many of its victories, will be the leading design in the fabrics which will be worn during the great celebrations abroad.

There is no talk of America's launching new gowns for whatever celebrations may come. The eyes of our buyers, manufacturers and dressers are turned toward Paris, and each is making a great effort to get over there, despite the scarcity of passports given out in this country.

Hair Ribbon Economy.

Little daughter's hair ribbons should be made to do duty as long as possible. When soiled they may be thoroughly cleaned by shaking in a solution of soda—a teaspoonful baking soda to one quart of boiling water. Rinse the ribbon in cold water, dry for two or three minutes in a towel and press with a hot iron. This process removes all dirt or grime, but does not injure the color.

Javelle Water.

This is used in Chinese laundries to whiten their linen. It will remove most any kind of stain. One-fourth cupful to a boiler of clothes will make them very white. One gallon of water, four pounds washing soda, one pound common soda. Heat all together, add two pounds slaked lime. After it has stopped foaming pour off and bottle.

Daily Thought.

Men are never very wise and select in the exercise of a few powers—William Henry Channing.

Too Generous.

The trouble with the fellow who becomes generous is that he wants to hand some of it to everyone he meets.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MARCH 19, 1919

Belgium wants $8,000,000,000 as its share of the damages collected from the plundering Teutonic invaders. It is to be hoped that the martyred little country will get every cent of its fair share, for its sufferings, which began earliest, were proportionately greater than any other victim's.

The eagerness of an English woman to see Princess Patricia pass by after the wedding ceremony caused her to invent a new use for the trench periscope. No doubt a periscope will enable the short to look over the heads of the tall and see any parade whatever, but a reserved seat in the grandstand would be cheaper.

Presumably the Allies know what they are about in deciding to send great shipments of food to Germany, but the testimony has been bewilderingly conflicting. Only a few days ago a Bavarian member of the National Assembly asserted before that body that Germany could get along without imported food if it would make the best use of what it has and if the people would "go to work." If such is the real situation, food from without may produce both more idleness and more Spartans.

SHELL SHOCK AND TOBACCO.

According to the medical experts of the army, "shell shock" is a sort of nervous breakdown resulting from the terrible bursts of sound, the horrid sights, and the general strain of continuous battle under modern conditions. This appears to be a very reasonable explanation of a serious malady, but it does not satisfy Rev. Clarence True Wilson, who asserts that so-called shell-shock is due to tobacco, particularly in the form of cigarettes. According to this "general secretary of the board of temperance and public morals of the Methodist Church," as quoted, "young men trained at great expense by the Government to fight its battles had to be led out of the fighting ranks to have cigarettes stuffed in their mouths before they could stand up and hold a gun" and "the attempt to call this shaking 'shell-shock' is amusing to every one who knows."

In other words, the Government's medical experts have not told the truth. Therefore the Rev. Wilson will set the "appalling facts" before the public by publishing and circulating "millions of educational leaflets on the nicotine poison." Some time back the same reformer was flooding the country with "clip sheets" giving similar "appalling facts" about the effect of alcoholic stimulants and now he is industriously engaged on his "anti-tobacco program." If the second crusade matches the first, tobacco will be legislated out of existence in no very great while. Meanwhile it would be interesting to know what the Government and War Department think of the charges of gross deception thus brought against their medical experts.

THE LIST OF ATROCITIES.

Thirty-one varieties of crime committed by the enemy during the war have been submitted by the "subcommittee on fact" appointed by the peace conference's commission on responsibility for the war. The list, which the subcommittee declares does not exhaust the record of the enemy's crimes, includes the massacre of civilians, putting to death of hostages, torture of civilians, starvation of civilians, violation of women, abduction of girls and women for enforced degradation, deportation of civilians, forced labor of civilians for military purposes, compulsory enlistment of soldiers in occupied territory, pillage, confiscation, forced contributions of enormous sums of money from occupied cities, wanton devastation and destruction, sinking passenger and merchant ships without warning, bombardment of hospitals, sinking of hospital ships and disregard of Red Cross, use of poison gas and expanding bullets, misuse of flags of truce, poisoning wells, orders to give no quarter.

Will this appalling official list of savage practices, this indictment made by the nations sitting in judgment at Paris, open the eyes of those who persistently refused to believe alleged "British and French lies" and trusted the former Kaiser's shameless declaration that the war was being conducted in "a knightly manner" by his order? The German masses were kept in ignorance. Even the citizens of this country describing themselves as "German-Americans" refused to believe. Only the Hun soldiers knew what was ordered and done. Doubtless there will be a lingering belief among Germans that the most savage of wars was conducted in "a knightly manner," but the historians of the future will accept the official indictment made at the Peace Conference.

WHO WILL LAND THE FIRST SHAD?

The Hudson river shad season is now officially open although the first shad to be caught has not been reported as yet. The season opened in reality Saturday, but as there can be no fishing between the hours of sunset Friday and sunrise Monday, the really official opening was Monday.

ESOPUS.

Esopus, March 18.—Friends of Mrs. Emory Freer will be glad to hear that she is gradually improving and is now able to sit for a time each day.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Mott entertained Miss Mary Burger, John Beaver and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Givens on Wednesday evening of last week.

Herbert Schultz and family motored to Esopus on Wednesday evening to spend a few hours with Mr. Schultz's father, J. L. Schultz.

Frank Carboni and family returned from New York city on Friday. Their eldest son, Salvy, whose death has been previously mentioned, was buried in Brooklyn, and now the youngest son, Frank, is quite ill, threatened with pneumonia. They certainly are having their share of trouble.

The official board of the Methodist Church was very pleasantly entertained at the parsonage on Wednesday evening last, by Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Lyons. They were invited there for the purpose of considering the work to be done in reference to the centenary movement in this community. After the business session, Mrs. Lyons, assisted by her two children, Gladys and Harold, served very satisfying refreshments, and the remainder of the evening was spent in pleasant conversation.

Marshall Hasbrouck went to Wittenberg on Saturday to remain for a week with his mother and other friends.

Rev. J. J. Lyons and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Mott on Thursday last.

A letter received from Private John Arthur Anderson by a friend in Esopus states that he is still in France, but hoping that he may reach home by the 4th of July, or next Christmas. He is now mail orderly and walks ten miles every day on his route. Unfortunately he is not like the children of Israel, who wandered in the wilderness for forty years and their shoes did not "waxen old" upon their feet. Consequently he had to apply to Uncle Sam for a new pair of shoes. His greatest source of anxiety at present is how to keep track of those shoes—his usual size being 6½ E width—while one of those received is 9 E width and its mate 9 double E width. However, as all his friends well know, John always makes the best of everything so we imagine he will survive the ordeal and express his gratitude to Uncle Sam for his "generous" gift.

"Prince Charlie."

Charles Edward, the grandson of James II. of England, sometimes called Bonnie Prince Charlie, was known as the young pretender, son of James II.

At the time of the rising of 1745 he was at one time very near entering London, but the faculty that hung over the Stuart's, was behind him. He retreated to Scotland, where he and his army were utterly routed at Culloden. With him the direct line of the Stuarts became extinct. He died January 31, 1788.

CLOTHING MEETINGS PROVE SUCCESS

Enthusiastic Attendance of Women
Interested in Millinery and Dressmaking at Rosendale and Accord Gatherings.

That women are interested in the dressmaking and millinery meetings being conducted in the county this week by the Home Economics Association has been proved to the groups of enthusiastic women who have attended the meetings already held.

At Rosendale on Monday afternoon in spite of the stormy weather a large number of interested women attended the meeting held in the parish house. The meeting was opened by Mrs. C. V. Hasbrouck, chairman of the local Home Economics committee, and with the singing of America. Miss Helen K. Robson, a "clothing specialist" from Cornell University, was then introduced. Miss Robson presented her subject in a most helpful and most interesting way. Her discussion on "How to Know Materials" and the various home tests to use in determining whether we are getting the material we are paying for were particularly valuable. When it came to the removal of stains, Miss Robson gave a number of new ways of removing various stains and they were all appreciated. The points given on the changing of patterns and the remodeling of garments brought forth many valuable suggestions from the women present and also a number of questions.

The Accord Meeting.

On Tuesday afternoon a similar meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Roney Krum of Accord. Mrs. Elmer Smith, chairman of the local Home Economics Committee, opened the meeting with a few remarks on the commendation of the "Clothing" meetings being held in the county and then Miss Robson was introduced. The meeting proved to be an especially interesting one to all of the women. At the close of the meeting a number of women remained to make copies of some of the valuable patterns Miss Robson had with her. A new apron pattern was particularly popular.

Other Meetings This Week.

The other "Clothing" meetings to be held this week in the county are as follows:
Wednesday—West Shokan, at the home of Mrs. N. W. Bishop.
Thursday—West Hurley, at the home of Mrs. John Saxe.
Friday—Mt. Marion, at the home of Mrs. Walter Conyers.
If it is possible for you to attend one of these meetings do not miss this opportunity to obtain the many valuable points Miss Robson has for you on the subject of "Clothing."

MULE OF PECULIAR COLOR

Driver Explained With Patience Just How the Animal's Strange Appearance Was Brought About.

Two mules, drawing an army service wagon, caused a sensation in Knightsbridge a short time ago. One mule was poor but honest in appearance, brown in color; the other was a delicate shade of green. The green mule was solemnly unconscious of the attention he was attracting. "Effects of war oats?" asked a facetious United States soldier. A workman rubbed his eyes and then muttered, "camouflage."

The A. S. C. driver looked thoroughly ashamed of the turnout. He stopped to pick up a crate. "What is the matter with your pony?" asked a mild man. "I am tired of being asked it, and it isn't a pony," replied the driver. "It is all through the chemical. Goodness knows what color it will be tomorrow. Its coat was very light once, and the other mules used to kick it. We washed it in some chemical dye to make it darker. The sergeant can't remember the name of the dye, and now that it is wearing off, it is a different color each day. You are the last person I shall explain it to." He drove off furiously—a khaki driver on a state-drawn horse drawn by one honest brown mule and one shameless mule of an esthetic shade of green.—London Mail.

Est to Break Up Cold.

When a cold first starts physicians usually advise a light laxative diet, consisting chiefly of hot lemonade or orangeade, broths or gruels, with crisp toast, baked potatoes, mild, stewed fruits and vegetables. After this for a few days, until the cold seems to be broken, it is well to eat an ordinary diet, with plenty of fruits and vegetables. To add the body in recovering eat meals which give more fuel value than usual.

SYMPHONY CONCERT LEAGUE OF NATIONS PUBLIC REHEARSAL AT ST. JOHN'S CLUB

The public rehearsal of the coming Symphony concert to be given at the High School auditorium next Monday afternoon, will be free to all school children of this city. In addition to hearing the beautiful music the children will have explained to them very briefly, some of the instruments and such part of the program as they will better understand if they more fully understand what it is all about.

Educational Features of Concert.

There are two very important educational features of these Symphony concerts. One has to do with the student-musicians in the orchestra; the other with the music pupils attending the concert. Any educated and experienced musician knows that there is no possible way in which students learning to play some orchestral instrument, especially the stringed instruments, can so broaden their knowledge of the best music, which is now being recognized as real musical education, like the privilege of playing in a good orchestra, such as our Symphony orchestra. On the other hand, one is no longer considered musically educated because they can play some instrument. They must have a knowledge of the great musical masterpieces, just as a generally cultured person is expected to be familiar with the masterpieces of literature and art—the painter's art. There is but one way for a music student to get such a general knowledge of musical masterpieces, by hearing them played or sung. And orchestral music sums up all that is the very greatest in the realm of pure music. Yet it does not follow that because a work, whether music or literature is educational that it is therefore not enjoyable. On the contrary the more perfect the art, the easier it is of understanding and the more enjoyable to all it becomes. Those who attend this Symphony Orchestra concert on Monday next will find this to be most true.

GROW PLANTS INDOORS

Get a Start On The Season Now By Beginning The Home Garden.

To grow certain early crops and to lengthen the growing period for others it is necessary to plant some vegetable seeds before outdoor conditions will permit. Early tomatoes, cabbage, cauliflower, peppers, and lettuce may be had with no great labor and little outlay for equipment, says the New York state college of agriculture.

On a small scale plants may be easily started by using a "flat" or an old soap box. The box should be 3 or 4 inches deep, should have holes in the bottom to permit drainage, and should be small enough so that it can be easily handled when filled with soil.

Fill the box to within one-half inch of the top with fine loam, then firm the soil and have it perfectly level and free from stones, sticks, or lumps before seed planting. Mark the rows with a straight stick that is as long as the box is wide, making the rows about one-fourth of an inch deep and two inches apart.

The seed should be covered very lightly, and they should not be over-watered, as that causes weak plants. Place the box near a window, preferably on the south side of the house, and turn the box every two or three days so that plants will get equal amounts of sunlight from all sides.

Time of Planting.

The time of planting the seeds depends upon the approximate date of transplanting to the garden. Lettuce or cabbage can be set out of doors very early and therefore can be started before tomatoes or peppers. As soon as the plants seem crowded in the box they should be transplanted or thinned so that they will not become spindly. In from six to eight weeks plants reach the transplanting size.

GLENFORD.

Glenford, March 19.—Mrs. John Sieker was the guest of friends in Mt. Pleasant Saturday evening and Sunday.

George Osborn spent Saturday night at J. W. Castle's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palen and Mr. and Mrs. Omack took an auto trip to Kingston Saturday evening.

Elmer and George Greer have employment in Kaaterskill at this writing.

Enos Avery of West Hurley was a caller in this place Sunday.

Didn't Lose Any Time.

Ruth was left to watch baby brother in his bed while mother prepared dinner. In a few minutes followed a thump and then a wail. Running upstairs mother said, "I thought I left you to take care of brother." "Well, mother, I did call you the very minute he hit the floor," was the comforting response.

The special preacher at the Friday evening Lenten service at St. John's Episcopal Church this week will be the Rev. H. B. Hobson of Ellenville. Directly following the service in the church there will be a meeting of the Men's Club held in the parish house, at which time there will be a discussion on the all absorbing question, "The League of Nations." The discussion will be led by Postmaster William C. DeWitt and C. V. A. Decker. The public is cordially invited to be present during this discussion.

"THEY."

Drop in at the Club and listen awhile. To the battles they are fighting today; in fireless chairs, they are many a mile from Argonne, St. Mihiel and Cambrai.

"We have heard that the Boche had learned we were there," You'll hear "Twenty-eight Whittington" tell. "So I got the 'Old Man' to help me prepare. Send some Fritzies and Heinies to hell."

"That night when the 'Staff' was dreaming of 'Jane,' And the S. O. S. lapped up its gin, I hid my platoon in 'Bloody Mary's' Plain. With the mud right up under my chin."

"I had it all fixed to pull off a raid. And drive Hindenburg wild with despair; But some one fell down, barrage wasn't laid, So we put off the stunt 'till chances were fair."

"It's always the same, the doughboy is there. With the goods and real fighting stuff. It's he won the war, so no more than fair. To admit that the rest is all 'bluff.'"

"Bluff, hell!" Carlson shouts, "the artillery bit. Is the biggest bit done in the war; And all those who know admit that we're few. All this doughboy talk sure makes me sore."

"The Air Force won," says Dave B. I. O. "If you're square you'll confess it is true. What good's the artillery? Quite useless, you know; If we don't furnish targets for you."

And so it continues night after night; You might think that our bunch can't agree. But deep within, well, we know who is right. For on one thing we're as close as can be.

You'll read all our jokes, you'll join in the fun. Of the book we're publishing here; But stop 'er you close it, justice be done. For we want you to get this thing clear.

Yes, we can be serious, we can be fair. Though we "knock" all the bunch here today; Way down in his heart each is aware. We are the "luckies" the winners are "THEY."

"They" came on our transports, some died on board; So we landed in France without those. Then later the "flu" hit us, "They" paid once more. And in gloomy French graveyards repose.

The Boche hit us heavy, again it was "They." Might be possible for us to get through; "They" hurried out there, are lying today. While we're living life easy, anew.

Though all made the "bid," in Khaki or Blue. Only "They" paid the highest on "call." For victory is bought with lives, and the who "Went West" paid the bill for us all.

So later at home, if we next year, Start fighting Argonne and Stenay. Remember the boys we're leaving "out here." And forget us; the winners are "THEY."

Editor of The Freeman: The above poem was sent by Lieut. Horace B. to us. It was written by one of the 28th, "The Iron Division." Sorry he does not give the name of the author. I think it is worth publication. The sentiment to my way of thinking is fine.

LINES TO HOGAN'S CAT.

Poor from thy tawny throat, oh cat, loves plaintive lay. And taunt you brindle cur with contumely and with scorn; Take 'er the sloping roof thy high precarious way. With meditation fixed on generations yet unborn.

Thy way's the best see where the catnip monogrel vainly stalks. And senseless barks and howls in his impotent wrath: So envious man hath girl with danger all thy pleasant walks.

And with devious pitch hatch smeared thy primrose path. For him thou dost seek out and slay the lone precarious rat. His yearning siddle but for thee would cease to squeak: Why should he revile and curse a harmless necessary cat?

Egg and cheer on his worthless cur thy life to seek. That calmly by an obscure hole you still with patience wait. The coming of the vile felonious rat thy enemy and mine.

Proves to all doubting Thomases thou canst retort; Thus through the mists of obloquy thy virtues shine.

Lift then thy high bewailing voice and give thy meditation tongue: Cheer with sweet song and canticle thy devious, fractious way: Rip from his false and hairy breast thy hated rival's tongue.

And on his scrawny side thy deep grim trade mark lay. —Alan MacLennan.

SHORTAGE OF CATSKILL WATER

New York's Supply From Mountains Below Expectations and Brooklyn System May Have to be Rebuilt—Wastage Enormous.

The depletion of water entering New York city through the Catskill system has impelled Cornelius M. Sheehan, deputy water commissioner, to warn Brooklynites, who are especially affected, against waste. He has pointed out that while there is no danger of a water famine in Brooklyn, the situation necessitates attention. It reveals incidentally that the Catskill system water supply is not as ample as had been believed.

"The water in Greater New York," reads Mr. Sheehan's statement, "is being supplied from the Catskill and Croton reservoirs. As the pressure behind the Croton flow is insufficient to carry it to Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond, the Catskill system has been seriously depleted, so that unless there is a decrease in the consumption of water the city of New York will be put to the greatest expense of reinstating its Brooklyn system, the cost of which will have to be borne by the taxpayers."

"We are therefore compelled to check all leak and waste in order to save the taxpayers this additional cost and have established a leak and waste squad which we are sending throughout the entire borough."

Mr. Sheehan said that the drain on Catskill was a heavy one. He admitted that the supply was less than had been expected and gave interesting figures. There was a severe drought in the Catskill region last summer. Acres of the reservoir bed went dry.

The Catskill supply in March, 1917, he said, was 117,000,000 gallons. Now it is 60,000,000 gallons, which is just about one-half of the maximum storage capacity.

The average consumption last year of Catskill water was 418,000,000 gallons a day, or about 100,000,000, 000 more a day than was being received from the water sheds into the system. The wastage in New York city a day is 30,000,000 gallons.

STATE CITIES FACE HIGHER TAXES

According to Conference of Mayors Unless Legislature Defends Mandatory Bills and Provides New Sources of Revenue.

The conference of mayors and other city officials of the state of New York believes that every city in the state is threatened with a grave situation if the mandatory bills now in the legislature become laws. Heretofore measures, says their secretary, W. Capes, must be adopted if the cities are to escape this tax burden. He asserts that it is a time for serious thinking and asks where are the cities going to get the money.

Following is a statement from Mr. Capes of the increase in the cost of government in the cities of New York state that will result in 1920 from loss of revenue and the passage of mandatory legislation now before the legislature:

Average annual normal increase in the cost of municipal government, based on the annual increase for several years back $13,000,000.00
Cities' share in the loss of revenue from the tax on mercantile and manufacturing corporations, based on estimates of the State Tax Commission ..... 2,300,000.00
Loss from excise tax ..... 10,000,000.00
Cost of complying with proposed law for a three platoon system in the municipal fire department ..... 7,000,000.00
Total increase in salaries of school teachers in cities are required to adopt schedules prescribed in the Downing-Malone bill ..... 7,000,000.00
Total cost of complying with bill requiring all cities to use voting machines ..... 2,700,000.00
Total increases in salaries of police officials if second and third class cities are required to adopt schedule prescribed in Blakely bill ..... 400,000.00
Total ..... $42,400,000.00

Recapitulation.
Loss of revenue ..... $12,300,000.00
Normal annual increase ..... 13,000,000.00
Tax burden resulting from mandatory legislation ..... 17,100,000.00
Total ..... $42,400,000.00

These figures do not include extraordinary expenditures or increased salaries which the cities are compelled to pay because of abnormal conditions. Unless the legislature defeats the mandatory legislation and provides new sources of revenue which will annually yield $25,000,000 for the cities alone, real estate in the cities will next year have to pay $50,000,000 more in taxes than it is now paying.

"Banjo Fire" Succeeds Drumfire Amid Blasted Ruins of Verdun

"Waiting on the Lovers"—the one that held back the German tide—might be the title of this picture of two V.M.C.A. entertainers singing and playing for their fellow Americans at Verdun. Regular stages are luxuries in scores of places which the "Y" amusement system serves, and now that the necessity of dodging shells is over, these concerts are regularly presented in surroundings that for picturesqueness beat anything that a theater's scenic artist ever invented.

The audience in this case is out of the picture. It has orchestra seats that reach back in a semi-circle for a hundred feet about the stage—seats composed of brick, stone and bowlders of mortar. As the architect of this particular theater, the former Crown Prince provided plenty of room, and that is all that is needed for a successful show for the doughboys left in France.

ALDERMEN PLAN A WELCOME TO BOYS

Appropriate $1,000 to Erect Grand Stand, Hire Music and Decorate City Hall—Committees Appointed at Special Session.

At a special session of the common council held Tuesday evening, the sum of $1,000 was appropriated to be used to erect a grand stand on the city hall lawn, engage music, have certificates of appreciation printed, and decorate the city hall for the big welcome home parade for the soldiers, the tentative date of which has been fixed as Tuesday, April 1. President Watts presided, with Aldermen Roosa, Schick, Schlip, Maun, Krehmer, Kullmann, Van Valkenburgh, Hull and Purvis present. The absentees were Aldermen Preston, Kelly, Higgins and Connelly.

Mayor Canfield, who was also present, had filed a communication with the city clerk, containing several suggestions, which were adopted by the council, and Alderman Hull's motion that a sum not to exceed $1,000 be appropriated and used to welcome the boys home, was unanimously adopted.

Decorations and Grand Stand.
It was decided that the city hall and grounds should be elaborately decorated, and that a grand stand should be erected that will seat at least 500 people. This will be used for the city and county officials and the clergy.

The mayor's welcome home committee have planned to erect on the high school grounds a grand stand that will seat at least 1,000. This will be for the relatives of the soldiers, and each soldier will be presented with two tickets, the mayor explained. These grand stand tickets would also be good for admission to a special performance at Keener's new theater, the Kingston opera house or the Auditorium, according to plans being prepared.

Certificates for Soldiers.
Mayor Canfield's suggestion that the returning soldiers be presented with a printed certificate of appreciation which they could have framed if they so desired was also adopted.

The committee which met Monday night is planning to present each returning soldier with a handsome bronze button. The boys from the city will receive one with the city seal on it, while the boys from the county will receive one with the county seal on it.

Music for Crowds.
It was also decided to engage two bands. One will be stationed on the city hall grounds, and will play a special musical program while the other will take part in the big welcome parade.

Who's Who? "Ev." Or City?
Mayor Canfield also explained about the banquet and entertainment that had been arranged for the soldiers in the state armory which led Alderman Mann of the Sixth ward to ask, "Who is going to do this Captain 'Ev.' Fowler or the city?"

"Last time when the soldiers were given an entertainment in the armory," continued the alderman from the Sixth, "a lot of the boys in the service did not get a ticket, and had to stay home. We don't want anything like that to happen this time."

"There was lots of dissatisfaction last time," said Alderman Roosa of the Second ward.

For Soldiers Only.
Mayor Canfield explained that the banquet and entertainment was planned this time in the state armory was for soldiers only, and that everything is going to be done to prevent any dissatisfaction.

All Soldiers Participate.
The mayor is reply to questions by some of the aldermen stated that the welcome home parade, banquet and entertainment, was not exclusively for the boys of the 27th Division, but every boy who had been service and was now at home. An effort will be made to list each of the boys who are now at home and give them an invitation to be present. In addition to that every returned soldier has been extended a public invitation through the newspapers to be present and participate.

Committees Appointed.
President Watts appointed the following committees:
Decorating—Aldermen Kullmann, Mann, Schlip, Hull and Van Valkenburgh.
Invitations—Aldermen Schick, Krehmer, Connelly, Preston and Mayor Canfield.
Music and grandstand—Aldermen Roosa, Kelly, Higgins, Purvis and Schick.
Soldier's certificates—Mayor Canfield, Aldermen Van Valkenburgh and Preston and President Watts.

"The paths up this mountain are too steep for even an ass to climb; therefore I did not attempt the ascent," were the words in a lecture which aroused untimely mirth.

BIG NIGHT FRIDAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

Veteran Basketbalers Play Varsity For Memorial Fund—Tugs of War and Dancing.

All is in readiness for the "biggest of all big nights" at Kingston High School Friday evening when the 1918-19 varsity line up against the high school varsity and the sensational inter-class tug of war is staged. Both teams have been putting in a goodly amount of strenuous practice work this week and each are counting on just about "mopping up" the floor with each other. But that is to be seen. Without a doubt the game will be the best, fastest and closest staged in the high school "gym" in recent years, and it can be truly said that it will be some time before two aggregations as skilled as these will ever again go on the floor.

Along with this, a veritable gloom-killer in the form of a tug of war, will be on the program of fun. The contest quite out of the ordinary in high school life is scheduled between the senior and junior boys and in all probability between the girls of the two upper classes, too. There is no limit as to the number of players on the teams, but there is much competition among the class leaders to secure the largest line-up possible.

As this kind of amusement is unusual there has been much discussion as to what kind of "uniforms" are to be worn for such an occasion. Some suggested "gym suits" while others thought that "sneakers" would serve just as well. However, that matter has been left for the captains to decide upon. The juniors accepted a senior challenge to play three games of basketball. Two games were played and won by the juniors, therefore making them the champions of the upper classes. So the junior "tug" captain, Frank Meiswinkle, feels very confident that his "warriors" will carry the seniors on the floor when they once take hold of that rope Friday night, as they have in all basketball games.

Another marvelous attraction is the music which "Curt" Shuter's trio will furnish so that those who wish to, may enjoy the "light fantastic" for about two or more hours. "Curt" has his crew all tuned up to perfection. The rumor is that he has put them on a stiff course of training so that they may be in the pink of condition for this night. Whatever he has done good music is guaranteed and a good time for everyone old and young alike if you have the "blues" go and see the excitement and then stay and listen to some of Shuter's latest music. Before the evening is over you will forget the "blues" and will feel like a two-year-old.

Clay Minstrel Crowded Hall.

The C. S. Clay Lodge minstrel show crowded Pythian Hall for the second time last night when they reproduced their show in all of its hilarity and gaiety. Harry Clearwater proved quite an addition to the chorus of the company with his baritone solo voice. The feature of this second show was the trio composed of A. F. Cronin, Almer, W. W. Williams and Harry Clearwater. In old southern songs their harmony could not have been equalled as they delighted the large gathering with their plantation favorites. Following the entertainment dancing was enjoyed until midnight in the strains of fine music as rendered by the orchestra. This show will be repeated in Tongoro on Wednesday evening, April 2.

NATION'S YOUTH TO SELL NOTES

Great Record of Pauline Henkel, 13, Results in Forming Junior Auxiliary to Aid Victory Loan.

Little Miss Pauline Henkel, thirteen years old, of 107 West Forty-fourth street, New York city, is the champion juvenile bond seller of the United States. Of course, her bond selling has been done for Uncle Sam. In each of the four campaigns for Liberty Loans she made a record, but in the fourth, when she sold $1,250,000 worth of securities, she made the record almost unassailable.

Now, that her work for the nation may have permanent value and that a whole army of young folk may be inspired to regard work for their country as their greatest satisfaction, she has founded an organization known as the Junior United States Auxiliary. The members of the auxiliary mean to perpetuate the spirit of patriotism, teach the excellence of American ideals, organize war savings societies, extend comforts to the wounded and to such soldiers who are detained in camps awaiting demobilization, and otherwise assist the Government.

The membership of the auxiliary is open to girls and boys from six to sixteen years of age. No dues are asked, but to qualify, the applicant for the privilege must obtain five Victory Loan subscriptions, or sell $15 worth of Thrift Stamps, or $25 worth of War Savings Stamps. Already applications for membership have been made by 3,200 children in New York. The sales will be made through the school which the girl or boy attends, or through some other organization with which the child is affiliated, and not directly through the auxiliary.

Pauline, who is honorary colonel of the Third Pioneer Infantry and of the Boy Scouts and American Cadets, will speak in a number of public schools, explaining the plans of the auxiliary. A certain number of adult members, whose duty it shall be to assist in the work of organization, will be received. Fifty men and women have already associated themselves with the undertaking.

Are You a Bolshevik?

Bolshevism is based upon violence, relies upon force, is deaf to right or reason.

To force the bowels to move by taking castor oil, pills, salts, mineral waters, etc., is to outrage Nature and "bolshevik" the body. Because drugs act by producing irritation.

Castor oil, for instance, is so obnoxious that the bowels make frantic effort to get rid of it. Other medicines, from senna to salts, provoke action by causing the bowels to try desperately to expel them first.

With such remedies therefore the removal of bowel waste is secondary and wholly incidental. Hence, the result is not to cure constipation, but on the contrary, to make it worse, more obstinate, harder to overcome.

On the other hand, Nujol is not a drug, does not act like any drug, acts mechanically, not medicinally; persuades Nature instead of forcing her.

Nujol supplies necessary moisture to soften intestinal contents and facilitate easy, thorough evacuation at regular intervals. Nujol makes easier and more effective the action of intestinal muscles. Nujol absorbs poisonous material.

Nujol is free from any deleterious after effects, forms no bad habits, can be used at any age, under any conditions, and overcomes constipation because it works hand in hand with Nature—with her laws, not against them.

Self-poisoning due to constipation causes over 90% of human illness. Get a bottle of Nujol from your druggist today, and send coupon for free booklet—"Thirty Feet of Danger."

Warning: Nujol is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark. Insist on Nujol. You may suffer from substitutes.
